

Storm Information Website:

This will be updated as the rebuilding process continues.

<https://www.nashville.gov/Government/Metro-Storm-Response-Information.aspx>

NERVE:

The Nashville Emergency Response Viewing Engine (NERVE) includes real-time information about road closures, school closings and locations of emergency shelters, food and water distribution centers and Disaster Assistance Centers.

<http://maps.nashville.gov/nerve/>

hubNashville:

hubNashville is for service requests and other questions related to Metro Nashville services. We have a specific tab for storm relief with a link for tree removal or maintenance on right of way, damaged sign, and power lines down or low. NFD announced that people can call 311 to get help securing their house.

How to use hubNashville:

- Call 311
- Hub.nashville.gov

Public Shelters Currently Available:

Red Cross is managing the shelters.

Meals Served:

- The Nashville Food Project will be providing breakfast at 9:30 a.m.
- The Salvation Army will arrive between 11:00 a.m. and 12:00 p.m. and stay until 6:00 p.m., providing lunch and dinner every day.

Locations:

Centennial Sportsplex (Shelter allows pets)

222 25th Ave N, Nashville, TN 37203

Smith Springs Community Center (Shelter allows pets)

2801 Smith Springs Rd, Nashville, TN 37217

Disaster Assistance Centers

The centers will operate every day from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

- Hermitage/Donelson
Hermitage Community Center
3720 James Kay Lane, Hermitage, 37076
- North Nashville/Germantown
Hadley Park Community Center
1037 28th Avenue North, Nashville, 37208
- East Nashville
East Park Community Center
600 Woodland Street, Nashville, 37206

Resources on-site depending on availability.

- Codes Department: Will answer questions, direct people to the appropriate divisions and forms
- Congressman Jim Cooper: Will provide assistance and support for constituents
- FEMA Registration Intake: Will assist with the start of the registration process for those affected by the tornado.
- Financial Empowerment Center: Will provide assistance with the financial aspects of storm recovery, including major property damage or lost wages as well as one-on-one financial counseling.
- hubNashville: a computer will be set up for hubNashville requests and staff will be prepared to assist with those requests
- Mathew Walker Comprehensive Health Center: Will provide psychological trauma counseling, blood pressure and diabetes evaluation and management, and acute and chronic respiratory evaluation.
- Mental Health: Will provide triage for mental health needs, support for people to process the disaster, assessments of ongoing needs and connection to existing resources and support
- Metro Social Services: Will provide resource and referral assistance, case management and Indigent Burial services
- Nashville General Hospital: Will provide Blood Pressure and Blood Sugar (Glucose) health screenings and triage any additional medical attention that may be needed
- Nashville Humane Association, Agape Animal Rescue, Pet Community Center: Will provide animal wellness checks and pet supplies (as available)
- Public Health: Will provide flu shots, food safety information and environmental hazard information
- Red Cross: Will provide mental health support, WeGo transit passes, preparedness information and disaster health services.
- TN Department of Labor and Workforce Development and Workforce Essentials: Will provide post-disaster employment assistance, assist with unemployment insurance claims and communicate with general liability insurance carriers.
- Small Business Administration (Starting Sunday, March 8): will provide disaster loan assistance to renter, homeowners, small businesses and eligible nonprofits.

NES:

NES Power Outage Map.

<https://nespower.com/OutageMap/default.aspx>

Register of Deeds:

<https://www.nashville.gov/News-Media/News-Article/ID/9407/Tornado-victims-Get-needed-property-documents-from-Register-of-Deeds-at-no-charge.aspx>

How to access your deed online: <https://www.nashville.gov/Register-of-Deeds.aspx>